The Devil Dogs at the Marine Corps base in San Diego are due for an avalanche of comedy and beauty when Groucho Marx takes his "Blue Ribbon Town" program there for the broadcast over Station WABC on Saturday, at 10:15 p. m. EWT. Groucho will have his usual troupe with him but will spotlight a gorgeous guest, the film star, Carole Landis.

In response to numerous requests, the Little Blue Playhouse will dramatize the life of Josef Stalin, Russia's iron man, on Saturday, at 11:30 a. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Zeke Clements comes from Warrior, Ala., to sing a ballad on "Grand Ole Opry," when it airs on Saturday, at 10:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WEAJ. He'll sing the sentimental "Whose Heart Are You Breaking Now?"

Arthur Fiedler will conduct the Boston Pops orchestra in another of its highly popular programs on Saturday, from 8:15 to 9:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

A Coast Guardsman, a Marine and a Navy man will oppose a SPAR, a WAVE and a woman Marine, when Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson air their Saturday quiz at 8 p. m. EWT over Station WABC.

The greatest celebrity on the sparkling new "Million Dollar Band" program for Saturday, will be Jerry Wald, amazing young clarinet virtuoso and band leader. (WEAF, 10 p. m., EWT).

"The U. S. Coast Guard on Parade" program Saturday (WEAF, 11:30 a. m., EWT), will include a preview of the graduation of the First Class of Regular Cadets at the New London academy. The graduation will take place June 9. Thru the program, listeners and cadets will gain an insight into the assignments awaiting new officers after three years of hard work at the academy.

"The Adventure of the Killer Who Was Going to Die" will be told by Ellery Queen Saturday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT). A modern Don Juan is murdered in a reduce-a-larium, after breaking many hearts.

A pioneering radio series dedicated to post-war planning—"For This We Fight"—with leaders from many walks of life participating, will have its premiere over WEAF Saturday, 7 p. m., EWT. A Democratic senator, a Republican senator and two high-ranking newspapermen will constitute the first panel of speakers.

"One's Got To Be Best," by Nelson S. Bond, a story of the feuding Brills and Scogginses of the Virginia mountains, will be presented by Nelson Olmstead on his "World Greatest Stories" program Saturday (WEAF, 11:15 p. m., EWT).

The term "two-bits" was coined in San Francisco in pre-mint days when gold wire was chipped up for currency.
