

Rudy Vallee Is Visitor At Duffy's Tavern Friday

It'll be so quiet you could hear a beer barrel drop when the new season's first guest is greeted by Ed "Archie" Gardner at Duffy's Tavern Friday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EST). For it won't be nobody other than Rudy Vallee up there jousting with your host.

The familiar verve of Clifton Finnegan (Charlie Cantor,) the weary tones of Eddie the Waiter (Eddie Green) again will be heard, and Miss Duffy also will add to the toimerl. Matty Malneck will brandish the baton.

Jimmy Durante has a post-war problem. Somebody is waging war on him, by slugging him with a post. Garry Moore helps the Schnozzle apply balms to his wounds, on then comedy broadcast over Station WABC Friday at 9 p. m., EST. Moore also offers a cultural contribution, while musical moments are entrusted to Vocalist Georgia Gibbs and Roy Bargy's orchestra.

The election spirit has managed to sweep everyone along in its

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to corrections by networks made too late to incorporate.)

5:15—We Love & Learn, Drama—nbc
Fun With Junior, A Family Show—cbs

stride. "The Parker Family" is no exception. The men of the family decide to run for president in the local town organizations, in "Too Many Presidents" heard Friday at 7:15 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

A reporter for a national weekly, his pretty girl photographer and a publicity-hating member of the United States diplomatic corps all in Mexico at the same time—frohe thru "Southern Exposure," a comedy to be broadcast on "Author's Playhouse" Friday over WEAF at 10:30 p. m., EST.

Hank, the newsman, will be played by Olan Soule. Geraldine Kay will be the photographer and Herbert Butterfield will handle the role of Manchester, whose career hinged on a negative. Mary C. Quinn adapted Robert Carson's story for radio. Harry Bueck will direct.