

Robert Montgomery Cavalcade's "The

In his first radio appearance since he left with the Navy, Lt. Com. Robert Montgomery, the hero of Manila Bay, in "The Cavalcade of America," Monday at 7 p. m., Lima time, by Arthur Arent from the book, "The Story of Dewey" and Luis Kutner, the story illustrates how Dewey foresaw the approaching wars with Germany and Japan. Many interesting little-known sidelights on his smashing victory over the Spanish fleet at Manila are presented in this action-filled drama. Walter Huston is heard as commentator.

Charles Laughton, Dick Powell, and Susana Foster have been cast by producer Cecil B. DeMille to play in his version of the Cinderella comedy "It Started With Eve," on the Radio Theatre Monday. The full-hour show is heard regularly on Mondays at 8 p. m. over WABC.

Vox Pop goes abroad the U. S. Navy's Sixth War Loan exhibit on the Navy pier, Chicago, where Parks Johnson and Warren Hull will interview bluejacket heroes of the Pacific operations on Monday at 7 p. m. over WABC.

Jack Benny will return Frank Sinatra's visit to his airshow when he makes a guest appearance with "The Voice" on his Monday night program at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. This will be the first of Sinatra's program series to air at the new change of day and time. Eileen Barton and Axel Stordahl's orchestra are regular features of the half-hour show.

P
4
5:0
5:1
5:3
6:0
6:1
6:3
6:4
7:0
7:3
7:5
8:0
8:3
9:00
9:30
10:0