

Thin Man Mystery-Comedy

"Plays Tag With Dead Man"

Nick and Nora Charles play tag with a "dead man" and round up a bunch of crooks in "The Case of the Goofy Ghost," a mystery-comedy episode in the "Adventures of the Thin Man," Friday at 7:30 p. m., Lima time, over WABC.

When a beautiful cut-throat and a bloodthirsty plug-ugly rummage about in a mansion for a thief's stolen loot, they are rudely interrupted in their work by the "ghost" of their defunct host. The sophisticated sleuths also intrude upon the scene and wind up with a bag-full of criminals.

Andy's income tax grief continues to worry him into the Amos 'n' Andy show of Friday, at 9 p. m., over WEA.

He made only $250 in 1944, but somehow filed an inaccurate return showing yearly earnings of $7,000, on which he owes the government $1,200 in personal taxes.

The embers of love glow brightly for Henry Aldrich and his pal Homer, but they turn to pale gray ash when the two adolescents learn that the Clarkes' out-of-town visitor has other interests during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast Friday, at 9 p. m., over WABC.
