

Horror Story To Be Told Tuesday Night On The Air

One of the most chilling of horror stories will be told Tuesday at 8 p. m. Edna time when WEAF'S "Mystery Theatre" presents Edgar Allan Poe's classic, "The Cask of Amontillado."

"Anything Can Happen," the amusing story of a pair of newcomers to America told in the non-fiction best seller by George and Helen Papashvilly, will be dramatized by a cast headed by Orson Welles as George Papashvilly, on "This Is

M. B.," Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over Station WABC. The volume was a Book of the Month club selection.

Still winning the laurels of his tremendous success on Broadway as Shakespeare's "The Tempest," Arnold Moss returns to the radio fold as Your Host Raymond's guest ghoul in "Song of the Slash-er," a blood-curdling "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be aired over WABC on Tuesday at 8 p. m.
