"Cherished possessions" of Judy's mother and father turn out to be neither cherished nor possessions, and "A Date With Judy" evolves into a pair of simultaneous and secret treasure hunts, in the broadcast Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., over Station WIAF. Judy unwittingly starts all the trouble when she organizes an auction sale of most cherished possessions, with the proceeds to go to charity. Her parents enthuse over the idea. Father suggests Mother give up that super-deluxe gift he gave her many years ago, and she urges him to do the same with the ultra-snazy present she gave him in the distant past. The only catch is that each has given away the gift monstrosity in question, and now is faced with the grim necessity of finding it. Louise Erickson stars as Judy.
