

Bing Crosby Will Return To Kraft Music Hall Show

Bing Crosby will return to the Music Hall at 9 p. m. Thursday over WEAf. The "Groaner" has been away on a benefit golf tournament with his colleague Bob Hope. The King Cole Trio and Florence Albright, young classic singing protege of Crosby's will be his visiting guest stars on his return program.

Bud Abbott and Lou Costello make the laughs, Connie Haines and Bob Matthews, with an assist from Will Osborne's orchestra, make the music, when the Abbott and Costello show airs over Station WEAf Thursday, at 10 p. m. Miss Haines is slated to sing "The More I See You" hit song from the motion picture, "The Diamond Horseshoe."

"The Naked Mountain," a melodrama set in the Bavarian Alps and starring Franchot Tone, leading artist of stage and screen, will be the presentation on the "Arch Oboler's Plays" broadcast of 10 p. m. Thursday over WJL.

Fireworks for Japan, the M-69 fire bombs which have wrought such widespread destruction that Japan officially has announced that Tokyo is no more, will be the subject of the Army Service Forces "Weapons for Victory," in

Radio Guide

THURSDAY, JUNE 21
(Lima Time)

P. M.

- 5:30—Just Plain Bill—nbc
- House of Mystery—mbs
- 5:45—Front Page Farrell—nbc
- Tom Mix—mbs
- 6:00—News Report—nbc
- News—cbs, basic
- Chick Carter—mbs
- 6:15—America's Serenade: Sports—nbc