

Debonair Detective Tangles With Homicide And Diamonds

Mike (The Falcon) Waring, the debonair private detective, who is always ready "with a hand for oppressed men and an eye for repressed women," finds himself involved in an insurance swindle that leads to double murder in "Death Deals in Diamonds," the newest of "The Adventures of the Falcon," at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday over WOR.

"This is My Best" co-stars two of the screen's leading players, Gale Page and George Murphy, in a light-hearted tale, "Coffee With Dorothy," at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

Topflight radio performer Karl Swenson tops 'em all in a flight of fancy when he appears behind Paul McGrath's squeaking door to play a homicidal window-dresser in "The Lonely Sleep," a blood-tingling "Inner Sanctum" mystery
