

Gene Kelly With "The Voice" On First New York Program

Gene Kelly will be Frank Sinatra's guest star on the first broadcast of the "Songs by Frank Sinatra" series from New York at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WABC.

Kelly and Sinatra played together in the movie "Anchors Aweigh," and on the broadcast they will reenact scenes from the picture.

Pam and Jerry North have the old spook routine for the plot of "The Case of the Overnight Guest," one of their zaniest crime chasers in "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" to be heard at 8 p. m. Wednesday over WEA. An invitation to occupy a friend's rustic lodge on a remote and storm-swept cape leads the Norths into dark and mysterious escapades.

During their first night, Jerry and Pam encounter a caretaker who has been buried for seven years, ghosts that pop up at windows, hidden treasure that won't stay hidden, two murders, a haunted graveyard, a phony sheriff and all the rest of the trap-pings that go to make up a first-rate scare yarn.

Eddie Cantor has the last laugh on Harry von Zell when the latter discovers he's not the biggie he thinks he is on "The Eddie Cantor Show" heard at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WEA.

Lew Lehr, the comedian noted for this zany antics on the screen, will add fun to the program "Ralph Slater, Hypnotist," when he appears at 10 p. m. Wednesday over WOR as guest of the mesmer-ic analyst.

Jan Clayton, beautiful singing star of New York's musical hit, "Carousel," will be the guest arm-chair detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Other Man" at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over WABC.

The master detective throws a fast switch and springs a surprise in his dramatization of a mystery story in which a man finds him-self betrayed.
