

Bob Crosby Makes Debut Over NBC New Year's Day

New Year's Day will see the debut of the new Bob Crosby Show which will air from Hollywood at 10 p. m. Tuesday over CBS. Dinah Shore will be guest star on the premiere performance of the program.

The half-hour airshow marks the return of Crosby to the entertainment business after 14 months of service with the Marine Corps.

Alan "John D." Young, anticipating a big fiscal year in 1946, makes a New Year's resolution to convert his little sign shop business into a major industry during the "Alan Young Show" at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Unknown to the young comic is the fact that wealthy and snobbish Hubert Updike, III, has also made a resolution to go to work. So when Hubert buys a finance company which is destined to play an important part in Alan's business plans, the zany comedian, as usual, finds himself stymied by a snod.

A guest ghoul behind Your Host Paul McGrath's creaking door, radio ace Santos Ortega plays a paroled convict who nurses a long-lived hatred for his own brother in "The Phantom Music Box," a tune-tingling "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be heard at 9 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

His mother gave him a Swiss music box to acquaint him with the finer things in life . . . he spent 13 years in the penitentiary for embezzlement—he loathed his own brother for "stealing" the girl he loved. When this warped character is paroled he goes berserk—in a dream—but when he meets his brother and learns the truth, the little music box tingles a different tune.

Keenan Wynn and Rosemary DeCamp are the co-stars when Robert Carson's "Internal Combustion" is presented on "This Is My Best," at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

Mike (The Falcon) Waring is not quite sure that he wants to begin 1946 caught in the toils of deception and foul play, but there seems to be no surcease as "The New Year Starts with Murder" dramatization is heard over MBS at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.
