

Haymes, Forrest Open 1946 With Vocals And Comedy

Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest sing their way into the New Year, helped along by Gordon Jenkins and his band, during the broadcast of "The Dick Haymes Show" to be heard at 8 p. m. Saturday over CBS.

The 30-minute segment of the Haymes-Forrest air time features the baritone's singing of a trio of musical favorites and many other items of interest to popular music fans.

Roy Acuff starts the new year with two often requested solos over NBC at 10:30 p. m. Saturday over the "Grand Ole Opry" program.

The Duke of Paducah cuts his teeth on the subjects of dentists and Cousin Minnie Pearl comes by with the latest gossip from Grind-er's Switch.

With the new addition to the program, the "Crackpot Consequence" Ralph Edwards seems to be arousing mor and more interest in "Truth or Consequences" heard at 8:30 p. m. Saturday over NBC. Even before this new addition to the program, things were kept plenty lively by the crazy consequences, but this new thing has made things interesting beyond all description.

For the jokes you've been wanting to hear done in the right manner, "Can You Top This" brings some truly nutty ones. The program is heard at 9:30 p. m. Saturday over NBC.

YOUTH KILLED IN CRASH

EATON, Jan. 5—(AP)—An automobile crashed into an abutment near here last night, killing Her-