

Margaret O'Brien To Visit On Charlie M'Carthy Show

Margaret O'Brien who has been seeing a lot of Charlie McCarthy these days, makes another visit at 8 p. m. Sunday to his radio show over NBC.

Charlie figures "Maggie" will understand his current rift with Bergen who is now a truant officer in snake's clothing. Though making movies takes up most of her time, Margaret still has to keep up with her studies.

Altho Nick and Nora Charles think they've left detecting behind by strolling in the Easter Parade, it's not long before murder catches up with them again in "The Case of the 13 Pennies" this Sunday's creepy episode of the "Adventures of the Thin Man" at 7 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Answering the call of a damsel in distress, Nick agrees to trade the mysterious disappearance of her soldier sweetheart.

Raymond Massey, stage and film star, will be heard as "Paul Revere," when "Exploring the Unknown" dramatizes some of the many accomplishments as a metal worker, a practical scientist, gadgeteer and general "handy man of liberty." Revere was the first man to roll copper in America, an expert work in such other metals as silver, iron and tin, a maker of gunpowder and a moulder of public opinion.

Baby Snooks learns how to wash an elephant the hard way when the circus comes to town and she tries to sneak in under the big tent on "The Baby Snooks Show" at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.
