

Tonight's Aces

Discussion

7 p. m.—Leave It to the Girls (WGN): Tiny Ruffner defends the males against screen star Kitty Carlisle, and the regular panel, Eloise McElhone, advertising executive; Robin Chandler, fashion editor; Madison Evans and Paula Stone, actresses.

9:45 p. m. — Public Affairs (WBBM): William A. M. Burden, assistant secretary of commerce, "Federal Government and Civil Aviation."

* * *

Variety

7 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): guests, Hoosier Hot Shots, returned from Hollywood movie-making.

8 p. m.—Judy Canova (WIBA): goes to court and misses a dance; music, "Blue Skies," "I Don't Know Enough About You," "No Vacancies."

8:15 p. m. — Celebrity Club (WBBM): guest, Hildegard, with Jackie Kelk, comedian, and Margaret Whiting, vocalist.

8:30 p. m. — Grand Ole Opry (WIBA): "Don't Make Me Go to Bed and I'll Be Good," "Little Mother of the Hills," "Honey, Be My Honey Bee."

* * *

Drama

6 p. m. — Life of Riley (WMAQ): Junior decides to run away with the circus (WIBA at 9:30).

6:30 p. m. — Famous Jury Trials (WCFL): shrewd defense attorney saves an innocent defendant.

7 p. m. — Hollywood Theater

PAULA STONE
WGN at 7

(WMAQ): "Heart to Heart," starring Robert Paige.

7:30 p. m.—Jonathan Trimble, Esq. (WGN): Editor Trimble crusades against invasion of the movies into Bellport in 1905.

* * *

Music

6 p. m.—Dick Haymes (WBBM): "Oh, Tell Me, Pretty Maiden," "All Through the Day," "Full Moon and Empty Arms," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

7:30 p. m.—Boston Pops Orchestra (WCFL): "Slavonic Dance in C Major," Dvorak, Overture to "Martha," von Flotow, "Claire de Lune," "Polonaise in A Flat," Chopin

8 p. m. — Theater of the Air (WGN, WIBU): Victor Herbert's "Mlle. Modiste."