

Tonight's Aces

JOHN WAYNE
WBBM at 9:15

Special Broadcast

9:30 p. m. — Pres. Truman (WIBA, WMAQ, WGN, WCFL, WLS): address before annual Democratic Jefferson Day dinner in Washington.

* * *

Quiz

7 p. m. — Twenty Questions (WGN): guest, Russell Crouse, playwright.

7:30 p. m. — Scramby Amby (WGN): return of series based on anagram game.

* * *

Discussion

6 p. m. — Our Foreign Policy (WMAQ): "Report on Greece and Turkey," Paul Porter, special representative to Greece; Rep. Chesler E. Mellow, member of House Foreign Affairs committee. . . . It's Your Business (WENR): dramatization of life of Charles Goodyear, inventor of rubber vulcanizing process.

* * *

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Vaughn Monroe (WBBM): with Mills Brothers and Minnie Pearl comedienne. . . . East By East (WIBA): "If I Could Tell You" and "The Song Is You," vocal selections by Lois Fauerbach; "Skylark," clarinet solo by Gary Donovan, accompanied by Pat Runstrom; talk by Ken Sachtjen, East Side Youth major for the past year, who will introduce new mayor, John Collins; transcription of life of Al Smith, prepared by Institute for American Democracy; Bill Hogo-boom, announcer.

9 p. m. — Judy Canova (WIBA): gives an Easter party for neighborhood children.

* * *

Drama

6:30 p. m. — Curtain Time (WMAQ): "Mr. Justice Jimmy."

7 p. m. — Once Upon a Tune (WBBM): Easter tale of the "Wabbits of Warren."

7:30 p. m. — I Deal in Crime (WCFL): Detective Dolan hunts murderer of a newspaper columnist.

8 p. m. — Family Theater (WGN): Ethel Barrymore narrates "The Passion," with music by Mitchell Boys' choir. . . . Gang Busters (WCFL): story of stage coach mail robbery.

9:15 p. m. — This Is Hollywood (WBBM): John Wayne and Jane Wyatt in "The Angel and the Badman."

* * *

Music

6:15 p. m. — Jean Sablon (WBBM): "Oh, What A Beautiful Morning," "Aupres de ma Blonde," "Anniversary Song," "April Showers."

8 p. m. — The Time, the Place and the Tune (WMAQ): hit tunes of the past 10 years, with Phil Oman, commentator and conductor; Bob Stanton and Lucille Norman, vocalists. . . . Hit Parade (WBBM): with Andrews Sisters and Beryl Davis.

8:30 p. m. — Theater of the Air (WGN): change of time; "The Red Mill" starring Andzia Kuzak, soprano; Bruce Foote, baritone.

8:45 p. m. Saturday Serenade (WBBM): "The Rosary," "Ave Maria," "April Showers," "Easter Parade."

9:45 p. m. — Wayne King (WBBM): "Jeanine," "Linda," "Easter Parade," "April Showers."

* * *

Mar. 45 Dances Up