

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:00 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Iva Withers, star of "Carousel."
- 1:15 p. m.—WIND—Baseball: Pittsburgh Pirates vs. Brooklyn Dodgers.
- 3:15—WJJD—Baseball: New York Yankees vs. Detroit Tigers.
- 8:00—WIND—Baseball: Cubs vs. New York Giants.
- 8:45—WGNB—World of Tomorrow: Wayne Thomas, aviation editor of The Chicago Tribune, speaks on "Helicopters and Hopicopters."
- 9:30—WBBM—Open-Hearing: Sen. Baldwin [R., Conn.] and Sen. Ellender [D., La.] discuss question, "Should We Lift Immigration Quotas to Admit Europe's Displaced Persons?"

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 8:00 a. m.—WCFL, WLS—Breakfast Club, with Durward Kirby as guest M. C.
- 1:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Famous Names, with Grant Mitchell, Hollywood actor.
- 2:00—W-G-N—Meet the Stars: Tommy Bartlett interviews Marilyn Day of "Call Me Mister."
- 7:00—WMAQ—Milton Berle, with Ray Bloch's orchestra.
- 7:30—WBBM—Mel Blanc in another comedy episode.
- 8:00—WMAQ—Amos 'n' Andy show, with the Delta Rhythm Boys.
- 8:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly, with Bill Thompson.
- 9:00—WMAQ—Bob Hope show, with Jerry Colonna and Vera Vague.
- 10:30—WMAQ—Grand Marquee presents a drama.

MUSIC

- 8:00 a. m.—WJJD—Ernie Simon in a session of music and platter patter.
- 7:30—WLS—Boston Pops orchestra presents Smetana's symphonic poem, "The Moldau," Saint-Saens' "French Military March," Auber's "Crown Diamonds" overture, and dances from Khatchatourian's ballet, "Gayane."
- 8:30—W-G-N—Chicago Philharmonic, directed by Henry Weber, presents Wagner's "Siegfried's Rhine Journey" and Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Scheherazade."
- 10:00—WMAQ—Supper Club, with Jo Stafford as songstress.