

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT (Christmas Eve)

4:30—KFIJ—As a rebroadcast of the official lighting of the White House Christmas tree, MBS brings you this program, with President Truman presiding.

6—KFI—"Archie" Ed Gardner, famous for his colloquial expressions, sets out tonight in a more serious vein, to dramatize the story, "Miracle in Manhattan."

7—KNX—A man dressed in a Santa Claus suit knocks on the door of "The Saint" and asks to be protected against a gang of thugs.

7:30—KECA—For the 12th time in his long radio career, Lionel Barrymore tonight will be heard as Scrooge when "A Christmas Carol" is presented.

8:30—KFIJ—An unusual story of an interrupted banquet during Christmas Eve in "Berlin, 1945" will be aired on "Quiet, Please."

8:30—KNX—A fairy tale in the benevolent spirit of Christmas will be told tonight by "Dr. Christian."

9—KOER-KECA—Bing Crosby will sing Christmas music and the program will include the drama of the first Christmas, titled, "The Small One."

9—KFI—Dennis Day will repeat his last year's Christmas Eve show, "The Boy Who Sang for the King," tonight.