TONIGHT

7:00-KFI-Irrepressible Dennis Day becomes a "junior genius" on his program tonight. It's all a misunderstanding caused by an absent-minded professor who doesn't know Dennis very well... nevertheless, Dennis is hailed as a second Solomon.

7:30-KECA-A sparkling, all-star March of Dimes show has been announced by KECA. A line-up of talent from A. E. C.'s roster will participate.

7:30-KHJ-An unusual twist to the "How about dinner at our house, boss?" routine has been incorporated into the situation-comedy story on the "George O'Hanlon Show."

8:30-KNX-The exciting story of how more than half a million dollars in counterfeit money was made and disposed of before an alert farmer became suspicious will be told on "Gangbusters."

8:30-KFI-A new contest on the "Truth or Consequences" show for tonight... this time with the prizes being in cash instead of everything, including the kitchen sink. Twenty-five thousand dollars in cash will be riding on the possibility of the identification of the "Whispering Woman," with the first two phone calls made tonight.

9:00-KNX-The routine silence of a lonely observatory is ripped wide open during "Box 13," starring Alan Ladd.
