

● DIAL-LITES

TODAY

11:30 A. M.-KNX-A radio trilogy, "Alexander the Great Seeks Mastery of the World," will be presented by CBS on the show "You Are There." The show is in three parts and will be continued for three successive Sundays, March 6, 13 and 20.

12:00-KNX-The distinguished British pianist, Clifford Curzon, plays the Concerto for Piano and Orchestra No. 5 in E Flat Major, "Emperor," by Beethoven with the New York Philharmonic Symphony today.

2:30-KFI-With Arthur Fiedler on the podium, the Boston Pops Orchestra plays the "Ritual Fire Dance," by De Falla, and a movement from Beethoven's "Seventh Symphony." Robert Merrill, star of the show, will sing several solos, one from Giordano's opera, "Andrea Chenier."

4:00-KFI-Here are the first quarter-finals in the second year of Horace Heidt's "Youth Opportunity" show. The contestants will be Tommy Check, Willard Bolchee, the Mystery Four and the Peppereites. The same program is heard again at 7:30 p. m. as a rebroadcast. Jack Benny's show, heard at this same hour, is also on a rebroadcast schedule heard for the second time at 9:30. Benny, as you all know, is hanging his toupees at CBS.

6:30-KECA-Raymond Massey, Zachary Scott and June Duprez will be starred in a melodrama popular in the 1927 theater season when the "Theater Guild" presents "Interference."

8:00-KHJ-Astrid Varnay, noted Wagnerian soprano of the Metropolitan and San Francisco Opera Companies, will join the panel of regulars tonight on "20 Questions."

9:30-KHJ-Mutual's "Chicago Theater of the Air" will present Verdi's grand opera, "Rigoletto," with soprano Virginia Haskins and tenor Richard Tucker in the leading roles tonight.