

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KFI — Archie invites Cass Daley to visit "Duffy's Tavern" and enlists her aid in finding a boy friend for the boss' daughter. Although she sings her all-time favorite, "A Good Man Is Hard to Find," she manages to walk off with the prospective suitor of Miss Duffy.

6:30-KHJ—J. Carrol Nash will be "Family Theater's" host to Glenn Langan, who will be featured in "The Empty Room," the story of a couple whose happiness is shattered by the death of their son until a new youngster takes his place in their hearts.

6:30-KNX—Using authentic tape-recorded material of the case history of a cancer victim, "Time and Her Life" will tell the story of one woman's victory over this dread disease from discovery to cure.

7:00-KFI—The judges have eliminated all but six of the contestants appearing on "Hollywood Bowl Auditions" for the 1948-49 series. Finalists tonight will be Shirley Effenbach, pianist; Jean Fenn, soprano, and Keith Wyatt, tenor.

8:30-KECA — An antique dealer and a war surplus dealer, a bachelor and a spinster, and a telephone operator and a housewife will comprise the teams to compete for the jackpot prize when Groucho Marx lets loose with the questions on "You Bet Your Life."

9:00-KECA—Bing and his guests, Walter O'Keefe and Rudy Vallee, introduce for the first time on the air O'Keefe's newest composition, "Hand-holding Music." The trio then rehash their early vaudeville days. Vallee receives plenty of kidding from the other two.