

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

7:00-KNX—The biggest jackpot in radio history is being offered tonight on the "Sing It Again" program. Fifty thousand dollars goes to the lucky listener who can guess the correct name of the "Phantom Voice." You may be the lucky one!

7:00-KFI—Dennis Day is introduced to a floating game of chance and makes the acquaintance of "Little Joe" and "Big Richard" when he starts out to pay a debt of his employer on tonight's "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day." Dennis also sings the hit song, "A Gal in Galveston."

8:00-KECA—The Lone Ranger and Tonto follow the rocky trail of two imposter killers in "Greg Hanson's Trickery," on tonight's exciting "Lone Ranger" program. They have to work fast to prove themselves innocent in this stirring drama.

9:30-KNX—The exciting story of a seafarer's adventures in the land of cannibals will be presented at this new hour on tonight's "Tell It Again" program. It's a thrilling account of Herman Melville and a shipmate who are marooned on a desert island.

10:30-KHJ—"The Chicago Theater of the Air" starts its new series of programs at this time with the presentation of "Madame Pompadour" on tonight's show. The play stars Morton Bowe and Virginia Card.

TELEVISION SCHEDULE