

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:00—KFI—Sadie Hawkins Day rolls around and Chester A. Riley steps forth to get a date for his daughter Babs, but before the day is over he wishes the whole idea had never been invented.

7:00—KHJ—Brig. Gen. Frank Howley, director of the Berlin airlift, will be interviewed by three eastern reporters on "Meet the Press" tonight.

7:30—KNX—Larry Mitchell, fast-moving radio reporter whose program is dedicated to exposing criminals, is off on another adventure tonight with a "Firebug."

8:30—KNX—Here they are again . . . "The Goldbergs." Tonight they will recreate their first broadcast to mark the 20th anniversary on the air. Only Gertrude Berg, author and star, remains of the original cast.

8:30—KECA—The crime that is almost as old as time itself—extortion—serves as the basis of the dramatized story to be told tonight on "This Is Your FBI."

TOMORROW

10:45 A. M.—KECA—Football game . . . Michigan vs. Ohio State.

2:00—KGER, KFOX, KNOB—Poly-Wilson game.

1:45—KNX—Football game . . . California vs. Stanford.

2:00—KHJ-KVOE—Football game . . . U. S. C. vs. U. C. L. A.

3:30—KFI—Compositions of Mendelssohn, Boccherini, Haydn and Cherubini have been selected by Arturo Toscanini for his NBC Symphony concert for today.