

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:00—KNX—Burt Lancaster leaves prison with murder on his mind in the "Suspense" production, "The Long Wait," to be heard tonight. With revenge as its theme, it builds suspense steadily until the surprise ending which comes in the last five seconds.

7:00—KECA—Using an attractive girl as a front, a big-time gambler attempts to move in on the college basketball bookies. But through the efforts of "Counterspy" he ends in the Federal Court in "The Case of the Basketball Bribery."

7:00—KFI—Thanksgiving will be celebrated on the "Super Club" through a story about a turkey, complete with five songs appropriate to the day.

7:30—KNX—Stephen McNally is starred in the "Song of Thanksgiving" the drama of a man who is jealous of his wife but who finds that all his misunderstandings are cleared up on this festive day.

9:30—KFI—In honor of this traditional day NBC presents a special program titled "Return to Thanksgiving."

11:00—KHJ—A Thanksgiving Festival Concert features Noble Cain, noted conductor, who will conduct the choir of Oklahoma High School Chorus.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24