

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

7:00—KECA—Two promising heavyweights, who are aiming at the title, will be put to the test when Roland Lastraza and Ceasar Brion, South American slugger, meet in Madison Square Garden tonight.

7:00—KFI—Edward G. Robinson will recreate his original role in "All My Sons" when "Screen Directors Playhouse" presents an adaptation of the film tonight.

7:30—KHJ—A man with 13 cats disappears from an old house in Arizona . . . strange things happen until the "Cisco Kid" comes up with the solution of the "Footsteps in the Night."

8:00—KECA—When a man runs an ad seeking a murder victim Brad Runyon tracks down the insertee and within five minutes finds the first murdered woman. How he turns up the killer is told by the "Fat Man" tonight.

9:00—KNX—There is trouble ahead for "Lucille Ball" when she insists upon tagging along with George to witness the annual football classic at his alma mater. She is molested by a collegiate wolf until George steps in and blocks the play.

9:00—KECA—"Ozzie and Harriet Nelson" win top honors for comedy in a hilarious episode stemming from David's report card.

TOMORROW

11:00—KECA—Metropolitan Opera . . . "Der Rosenkavalier."

11:45—KFI—Football today . . . Southern Methodist U.-Notre Dame.

4:30—KFI—NBC Symphony . . . Tchaikovsky's "Manfred Symphony," under the direction of Arturo Toscanini.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2