

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

BING CROSBY AND AL JOLSON GET TOGETHER again on KTSA-CBS's "Bing Crosby Show" Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. Jolson offers the unforgettable "Swanee." Crosby sings "I Can Dream, Can't I?", then joins Jolson for a medley including "Red Red Robin," "I Only Have Eyes for You," and "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee." KTSA-8:30 P.M.

AN EX-POLICEMAN MAKES A STRANGE appearance in George's strange life. Who is this man? Hear This is Nora Drake Wednesday. KTSA-1:30 P.M.

WHEN A GARDENER ACCIDENTALLY turns up a human skeleton, KTSA-CBS's "Mr. Chameleon" is faced with "The Greenhouse Murder Case" Wednesday at 7 p.m. The gardener feels certain the victim was a man supposedly killed in a plane crash, but Chameleon finds it to be a more complicated mystery. Karl Swenson plays the title role in this series, conceived and produced by Frank and Anne Hummert. KTSA-7 P.M.

PRODUCER-SHOWMAN-TOASTMASTER GEORGE JESSEL drops in on George and Gracie during KTSA-CBS's "Burns and Allen Show" Wednesday at 9 p.m. The fun gets under way when Jessel, as abbot of the Friars, theatrical organization, invites George and Gracie to be his guests at a New Year's Eve costume ball. Gracie, in a burst of generosity, invites their neighbors, the Mortons (Hal March and Bea Benadaret), not knowing that non-members cannot attend unless they are invited by the head man. As usual, Gracie's mistake leads to hilarity and aggravation for George. KTSA-9 P.M.

THE GENIAL MEDIC OF RIVER'S END patches up a pair of hearts that had remained broken for too many years, when KTSA-CBS's "Dr. Christian" presents the prize-winning play "Bon Voyage, Miss Tweedie," Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Authored by Francine Bolard of Upper Darby, Pa., the drama stars Jean Hersholt in the title role, with Rosemary De Camp as his nurse-secretary, Judy Price. Dorothy McCann produces. KTSA-7:30 P.M.

Cotsworth Gets Part

Staats Cotsworth, star of CBS' "Crime Photographer" and featured in CBS' "Guiding Light" and "Aunt Jenny" daytime dramas, returns to the stage in the role of Hastings in Maurice Evans' limited presentation (two weeks) of an all-star revival of "She Stoops to Conquer," which opens Wednesday.

This is Cotsworth's first theatrical appearance since 1941, when he played Banquo in Evans' "Macbeth" production. It has taken considerable maneuvering of schedules, for Cotsworth is one of radio's busiest actors.

Jolson

WHOSE?

Lucille Ball told the cast and crew of her Friday night CBS comedy airer, "My Favorite Husband," that she knows a mother so jealous of her son's wife that she sent them a pair of towels marked "His" and "His."
