

Spotlighting the D

Popular Programs

Bruno Walter, KTSA, 2 p.m., (FM), making his last appearance of the season, conducts the New York Philharmonic Symphony in the Haydn Symphony No. 83 in G major and in the Mahler Symphony No. 1 in D major. Rebroadcast over KTSA, 10:30 p.m., (AM).

Andre Kostelanetz, KTSA, 3:30 p.m., will lead his orchestra in an interpretation of "Night and Day" on the Columbia LP Record Parade. Also to be heard will be excerpts of Chopin's "Les Sylphides" conducted by Efrem Kurtz.

June Haver, KTSA, 7 p.m., joins Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen in a comedy Skit based on the fairy tale, "Hansel and Gretel."

Gracie Allen, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., with George Burns, of course, joins Horace Heidt at Toledo, Ohio, for his talent-seeking program.

Sammy Kaye, KTSA, 1 p.m., brings his program of popular melodies to the airwaves from Kaukauna, Wis., for the Sunday Serenade.

Evelyn Knight, KTSA, 9 p.m., and Dick Brown join forces as musical guests on the Carnation Contented Hour.

Dramatic Programs

Fred Allen, KTSA, 6 p.m., and the residents of Allen's Alley do a burlesque of the Alley programs as Jack Benny's guest.

Janet Waldo, KTSA, 8 p.m., as Corliss Archer gets her father involved in the problem of the duties of today's parent.

Bill Boyd, KMAC, 3 p.m., as Hopalong Cassidy, the San Antonio Express comic strip hero, locates a hidden treasure by the lyrics of a whistled tune.

Ezio Pinza, WOAI, 7:30 p.m., in his first radio dramatic role in the male lead of "Goodbye Again" with Madeline Carroll and Linda Darnell.

Jane Wyman, KTSA, 5 p.m., takes desperate measures to prevent her marriage from becoming a business casualty in Samson Raphaelson's comedy "Skylark."

Children's Program

Uncle Dan, KTSA, 9 a.m., reads San Antonio Express Sunday comic strips in a program especially for the younger listeners.

News and Discussion

Heywood Vincent, KTSA, 10:15 p.m., analytically reviews the week's news on the San Antonio and national scene. Howard K. Smith, KTSA, 10:15 a.m., from London, analyses the British election campaign which climaxes in voting Feb. 23.

John T. Flynn, KTSA, 9:45 p.m., noted New York news man in a commentary.

Charles Collingwood, KTSA, 12 noon, CBS news broadcaster, brings a round-up of Sunday's most exciting news.