

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Robert Q. Lewis, KTSA, 7 p.m., presents new popular musical acts for preview by entertainment buyers.

Anita Gordon, KTSA, 3 p.m., is vocalist on the Garry Moore show, a popular afternoon program.

Arthur Godfrey, KTSA, 9:15 a.m., winds up another week with 75 minutes of music and mirth.

Martha Tilton, KTSA, 10:15 p.m., joins with Curt Massey in a waltz medley accompanied by Country Washburne and band.

Dick Haymes, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., with the Andrews Sisters presents a fast paced program of popular songs.

Dramatic Programs

Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., ending the week's series poses the question how long can George and Dorothy stay at opposite ends.

Lucille Ball, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., starts a drive for equal rights, but finds that it backfires.

Wendy Warren, KTSA, 11 a.m., tells how Dorothy and Peter call it quits until he can get his freedom from his wife.

Betty Hutton, WOAI, 8 p.m., stars in a fictionalized story partially based on the life of the late Texas Guinan.

Larry Thor, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., a former announcer, is winning new fame by his expert handling of the role of a tough, realistic Broadway detective.

News and Discussion

Round Table, KMAC, 9:30 p.m., outlining national and international reactions to the British election results.

Edward R. Murrow, KTSA, 6:45 p.m., winds up his London broadcasts by giving his personal observations and an analysis of the vote.

CBS newsmen, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., fire questions at a prominent congressman.

Civil Service Jobs With Military Open

Positions for general helpers in civil service work are open at various San Antonio military installations and in the surrounding area. Salary starts at 95 cents per hour.

At least six-months training or experience in one or more of the recognized mechanical trades is necessary to qualify. Applications will be received until March 14.

Brooke Patients See 1950 Camp Show Unit

Patients at Brooke General Hospital at Fort Sam Houston got their first 1950 glimpse recently of "Spotlight Revels," a Veterans' Hospital Camp Show unit.

Veterans' Hospital Camp Shows is a civilian, non-profit agency, servicing more than 100 veterans' hospitals with free