

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Martha Tilton, KTSA, 2:30 p.m., the lilting voiced vocalist is guest of Art Linkletter on the jovial House Party program.

Margaret Whiting, KTSA, 6:15 p.m., teams with Jack Smith to sing "Dixieland Band" and "Para Vise Me Voy" plus solos by each.

Robert Q. Lewis, KTSA, 7 p.m., stretches to an hour his variety series at which talent buyers audition new entertainment acts.

The Andrews Sisters, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., join Dick Haymes at Club 15 for a program of popular songs.

Arthur Godfrey, KTSA, 9:15 a.m., winds up a week with another 75-minute program of comedy and song.

Dramatic Programs

Joan Davis, KTSA, 8 p.m., finds that the police commissioner's snooty wife is an ex-strip tease artist in another sequence of this comedy program.

Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., tells how Dorothy surrenders to George and George surrenders to the police.

Wendy Warren, KTSA, 11 a.m., concludes this week's series with another thrilling chapter of her current story.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., tells how Alice Cleary's marriage is being upset by a boastful husband.

Edmond O'Brien, KTSA, 9 p.m., stars as Johnny Dollar who is searching Boston for a valuable missing painting.

TELEVISION

WOAI-TV

Channel 4

Friday Evening