

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

7:00—KTED—In anticipation of the presentation of the annual "Pageant of the Masters," all the past presidents of the Festival of Arts Association will gather to acquaint the public with the history of this famous art spectacle. In 1935 the first living pictures were shown. Starting with fifteen numbers, there are now sixty-six presented on three successive days.

8:15—KNX—"Stepping Out," a new popular music show starts as a five-week attraction tonight.

8:30—KHJ—A psychiatrist who uses his professional knowledge to drive a young girl insane and then to suicide arouses the suspicions of Capt. Scott, in the episode titled "The Devil's Advisor," on "Under Arrest."

9:30—KFI—Night reporter Randy Stone meets a Shakespearian actor while looking for material for his column, on the "Night Beat" program. He watches the actor play a true to life drama of death and mystery.
