

Spotlighting the Dial

Comedy and Drama

Truth or Consequence, KTSA, 8:30 p.m. — A Korea-bound G.I. is due for a lucky break when Ralph Edwards picks him out of the audience for special payoff during this hilarious program.

Life With Luigi, KTSA, 8 p.m. Luigi Bosco, as played by J. Carrol Naish, joins the Crusade For Freedom, nationwide campaign to mobilize the people to get the truth to Iron Curtain countries.

People Are Funny, KOAI, 9:30 p.m.—Art Linkletter starts his ninth season with the ever-popular audience participation stunt show.

Mr. and Mrs. North, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—The famous detective pair find that where love, jealousy and blackmail are involved, there is "No Charge For Murder." Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin are starred.

Mystery Theater, KTSA, 7 p.m. Inspector Hearthstone applies himself to the task of unearthing a diamond necklace and a murderer, when the owner of the fabulous necklace is lured to her death by a mysterious offer to buy the bauble.

House Party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m. Art Linkletter has Bob Sample of the Los Angeles Better Bureau as a guest on his popular audience participation show.

Beulah, KTSA, 6 p.m.—Hattie McDaniel of movie comedy fame stars in a drama revolving around the domestic life of a suburban family.

Music Programs

Treasury Bandstand, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra are the stars of this program, which features a different orchestra each day.

Club 15, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—Two official "Hopalong Cassidy" tunes will have their first performance by Bob Crosby, the Modernaires and Jo Stafford. The songs, by the celebrated tunesmiths Nacio Herb Brown and L. Wolfe Gilbert, are titled "The Hopalong Cassidy March" and a lullaby, "Hoppy, Topper and Me."

Jack Smith Sings, KTSA, 6:15 p.m.—The popular vocalist joins with the Dinah Shore for a program of songs in the modern manner.

News Programs

Edward R. Murrow, 6:45 p.m. The noted foreign correspondent analyzes the news of the day from his vast background of knowledge of the international scene.

B. & M.