

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—When Bing Crosby and his younger brother Bob get together tonight on the "Bing Crosby Show," they'll have a few things to talk over, including the difference in their ages . . . and how they best can keep their careers at the highest peak. Comely Toni Arden will be guesting also tonight.
- 7:00—KFI—The true story of how a Detroit, Mich., reporter proved one man innocent and pinned a murder on the man least suspected of the crime is the "Big Story" drama tonight.
- 7:00—KECA—"The Washout" which tells the story of what happens when a man acts without thinking will be broadcast tonight during the airing of the "Lone Ranger" episode.
- 8:30—KHJ—Pat O'Brien will be the narrator-host tonight on the presentation of "Family Theater." The story titled "The Story of Peter Zenger" is a semidocumentary drama dealing with the campaign for freedom of the press.
- 9:00—KECA—The historical dramatic series, "Mr. President," starring Edward Arnold moves to this new spot.
- 9:30—KFI—A quarrel between business partners proves to have been the motive for murder which is solved by "Mr. District Attorney."