

ON THE AIR Popular Programs

George Szell conducts the New York Philharmonic-Symphony with Brazilian pianist Givomar Novaes as soloist.
(FM only) KTSA 12 noon

John Carradine and Louis Kronenberger discuss Shakespeare's "Hamlet" on Invitation to Learning.

KTSA 10:35 a.m.

Jack Benny and Deborah Kerr seek to escape from the cannibals in a humorous travesty. KTSA 6 p.m.
George du Maurier's "Trilby" is dramatized with Teresa Wright and Rex Harrison as stars.

WOAI 7:30 p.m.

Three noted editors discuss Europe's attitude toward the U.S. on "People's Platform."
KTSA 11 a.m.

Church of the Air presents Rabbi Samuel I. Korff of Congregation Kehillath Jacob, Mattapan, Mass., as speaker.

KTSA 9:30 a.m.

Basil O'Connor launches the 13th annual March of Dimes on the Longines Hour.

KTSA 9:45 p.m.

Tony Martin, Jo Stafford and Victor Young's orchestra star on the "Carnation Contented Hour."

KTSA 9 p.m.

Peter Salem solves two murders centering around a stolen pearl necklace.

KMAC 7 p.m.

Lou DiMaggio, accordionist, defends his title for the fourth time on Horace Heidt's show.

KTSA 8:30 p.m.

Wendell Corey appears as a guest of Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen.

KTSA 7 p.m.

Benny