

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:30-KNK—Les Paul and his wife, Mary Ford, who have perfected a unique and pleasing method of recording, sing a duet "How High Is the Moon," when they visit the "Bing Crosby Show" tonight.

7:30-KFI—Fredric March and a cast of well-known actors in co-operation with the United Jewish Appeal present a dramatic program, "One Foot in Tomorrow," which tells of the refugee resettlement now being carried on in Israel.

8:30-KHJ—Lionel Barrymore hosts when sister Ethel narrates the passion and death of Christ, the annual Holy Week feature on "Family Theater."

9:00-KECA—"The Last Day," one of the most tragic days in our nation's history, is the pre-Easter dramatization chosen by Edward Arnold for his "Mr. President" program. The heights and depths of human emotion are contained in the events of one day in the life of the leader of our country.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1951